

Is It Worthwhile to Give Love to the Students?

Written by Tzu Chi Foundation
Wednesday, 17 February 2016 00:00

A young man asked: Master, do you believe your work in establishing the medical school and investing so much love for students is worthwhile?

Dharma Master Cheng Yen replied:

It is very worthwhile.

Because Tzu Chi is an organization with great love, everyone gives unconditionally and makes the young students feel loved. In the future, they will be grateful and give back to love others. So the love and effort are given without regret, not one moment was spent thinking how worthwhile it was.

Master Cheng Yen's Teachings on 04/12/1997
Translated by: Hui Ying Chin
Edited by Dennis Lee